

7 LANGUAGE SECRETS FOR PRESENTING YOURSELF WITH POWER

Learn the language of powerful presenting

Whether we're talking with a colleague, meeting with a prospect, or speaking in front of an audience, we're always presenting ourselves. What kind of impression are we making? Using practical, real-life examples, this interactive program shares seven verbal, body, and slide language secrets that will amplify your ability to influence and make the powerful impression you want.

In a safe, fun atmosphere, presentation expert Wendy Gates Corbett will guide you as you:

- 🔄 Learn how to choose and use the right words to influence your audience
- 🔄 Practice body language that conveys a confident, commanding presence
- 🔄 See strategies for creating compelling, engaging presentation slides

WHO NEEDS THIS WORKSHOP?

Professionals who want to elevate their ability to influence their audience, including executive leaders, business owners, and training professionals

DURATION

45 minutes to 3 hours

RESULTS

"One of my biggest takeaways was that each slide is an opportunity to send a strong and graphic communication fast, like an ad. I've used this technique and it helps me to deliver presentations that trigger learning, discussion, and that concentrate on their comprehension."

- Lillian L. Thompson

CEO/Associate AIA, Work Place Move Planning, Inc.

MEET WENDY GATES CORBETT

Wendy Gates Corbett, CPLP, is President of Refresher Training, LLC. She is a presentation consultant on a mission to rid the world of bad presentations. She works with professional athletes, speakers, and leaders making their messages more memorable with crisp materials and coaching to confidently deliver dynamic, engaging presentations that influence change.